Border BlueTM

Dianthus 'DIAN 202' (b Intended

LANDSCAPE FLOWERS

Vivid clean blue foliage, showy mottled flowers; reliable heat-tolerant Dianthus.

- This Dianthus forms broad clumps, providing lush presence in gardens or landscapes.
- Known for exceptional longevity and improved heat tolerance, this Dianthus offers enduring beauty for gardeners.
- Boasts greatly improved clean blue foliage compared to other types, maintaining a tidy border year-round.
- Features abundant regular flowers with vivid pink mottled pattern, adding bursts of colour and texture to gardens.

Description	Vibrant blue foliage, compact clumping, adorned with captivating, mottled pink flowers
Planting Density	20-30cm apart as a border, 9 per m² mass planting
Height & Width	Foliage: 15cm H. Flowers: 30cm H x 30-40cm W
Flowering	Showy mottled vivid pink flowers from spring to autumn
Best Planting Time	March to October
Uses	Garden, path or driveway border, specimen plant, mass planting
Position	Full sun to part shade
Soil Type	Adaptable to various soil types
Care	Water regularly, well-drained soil. Prune spent flowers to encourage reblooming. Fertilise in spring. Low maintenance, super hardy, and reliable
Where it Works	NSW, ACT, VIC, TAS, NT, SA & WA

